Introduction

The church of St Peter, Marksbury

From the Bristol Mirror of Sat 29 Dec 1810 p3: "On Tuesday last we were visited by one of the most dreadful storms ever remembered in this season of the year. . . . A considerable portion of the north-west pinnacle of the tower of Marksbury church, was blown down during the storm."

From the Bath Chronicle of Thu 1 Aug 1889 p2:
RE-OPENING OF MARKSBURY CHURCH. — The parish church, which is very old, and consequently rather dilapidated, has, for the past few weeks been under repair. At the Easter vestry it was decided to strip the roof and replace about half the old slates with new ones, put new ridge crease and a new ceiling, and colour the walls. This has been done and, in addition, the porch has been rebuilt, the buttresses renewed, the north and west walls of the nave and tower pointed, and the boundary walls made good, whilst new ropes have been put to the bells. The church was re-opened for worship on Sunday, the Rector (Rev. T. J. Scott) conducting the service. In the morning the proper Psalms were 26, 27, and 48; the lessons were taken from Gen. xxvii., 10 and 1 Peter ii ; hymns 242, 213 and 173 were sung and a most appropriate sermon preached from 1 Peter ii. 4, "to whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen by God and precious." The proper Psalms in the evening were 84, 122 and 150; lessons 2 Chron. Xxix., 20, and Rev. xxi. 5, "behold I make all things new." During both sermons the Rector made reference to the work which had just been done, and earnestly appealed for contributions towards defraying the cost. It is satisfactory to know that the necessary amount has been collected with the exception of about £30, which it is hoped may be soon forthcoming.

From the Bath Chronicle of Thu 5 Jan 1893 p6: "Mr. F. W. L. Popham, patron of the living, has presented to Marksbury Church a two manual American organ."

From the start of the burial register 1813-1981:
Tuesday 21st October 1902

The additional piece of land which was given by Mr Francis William Leyborne Popham as an addition to the Old Churchyard in the year 1886 (conveyance dated 13th March 1886) was solemnly consecrated on Tuesday 21st October 1902 by the Right Reverend George Wynham Kennion D.D. Lord Bishop of Bath & Wells. The Petition for Consecration was signed by almost every householder in the Parish and there was a unanimous desire in the part of the Parishioners for the Consecration Service being performed. The Venerable H Bothamley M.A. Archdeacon of Bath was in attendance on the Bishop. . . .

In 2017 repairs were carried out on the tower roof and walls, this being completed in October. The bells are to be reinstalled on a new bell-frame.

The parish is part of the benefice of Farmborough, Marksbury and Stanton Prior within the archdeaconry of Bath.

Your eyes have the beauty of a bottomless lake clear blue and shining with happiness which makes me feel breathless in the presence of their beauty. Your face has the sweetness o a fair princess the radiance of an angel, a charm timeless and your heart is so sweet, pure and warm perhaps you should take n a different form. You must be an angel haunting me day and night such a delicate, graceful, wonderful sight like an untouched, rare and beautiful pearl. In this world or the next you are the most beautiful girl I cannot believe you really are mine In beloved by a wonder to divine from here to eternity. expressed by John Darvill on January 16th 1968  Plaque:  HILARY DARVILL 15.9.1948 - 25.3.2010 Beloved wife of John 	 The birth of Hilary M Reay-Smith was registered 1948/Q3 Durham W. The marriage of John C Darvill to Hilary M Reay-Smith was registered 1969/Q3 Northumberland W.

Langford, Sidney Winboul, of Pont Gibaud, Puy de Dôme, France, eldest son of Mr. J. Harding, to Julia Frances, only surviving daughter of the late Mr. J. W. Andrews, London. From The Engineers of Cornwall at the Mines of Pontgibaud in France by Michael T Kiernan p69: Sydney W. Harding (1825-1870) On the 22nd May 1857 Julie Frances Harding, the 29 year old wife of Sydney Harding died. The death was registered at Pontgibaud and following the French legal requirement was entered under her maiden name of Julie Francis Andrews. Her Husband's occupation was given as pasteur protestant. Julie was buried in the Pontgibaud cemetery. The wording on her chest tomb may be translated from the French as: To the memory of Julie F. Harding, Wife of S. W. Harding, Minister of the Gospel, died at Pontgibaud. Filled with faith and peace of her salvation in Christ crucified She has gone to rest in heaven May 22nd 1857, at the age of 29 years. I know that my Redeemer liveth, I await the day he comes. Job 19:23-27 It is significant that Sydney Wimboul Harding, was not an engineer but a Minister of the Gospel of the English Protestant Church. His presence in Pontgiraud at the time of the arrival of a large body of Cornish miners and their families cannot have been a coincidence. It was not uncommon for the Cornish miners to have the comfort of their own religion in their various expatriate mining communities.

	Names	Inscriptions	Notes
			... Sydney Harding was not from Cornwall, he had been born at Pilton, England in 1825 and married Julie in London on 29th October, 1856. After the death of Julie, Sydney twice remarried. He married Jenny Gladys, who had been born in Caveirac, France, in 1858 and in 1866 he married Maria Louisa Julia Rossignol who had been born in Bressau, Germany. This last marriage took place at the French Protestant church in St. Martin-Le-Grand, London. Sydney Harding eventually died in 1870 and was buried in Brockwood Cemetery, Surrey.
