			followed Wellington, after Waterloo, and was in Paris as a British soldier when the famous treaty of peace was signed. His grandfather was cousin of the celebrated Sir Ralph Abercrombie, who defeated Napoleon's forces in Egypt, and his ancestors held commissions in our army for upwards of four generations. Tired of military life, Mr. Abercrombie eventually laid down his arms, and for 33 years he has been a minister in the body he is now connected with. It is worthy of remark that, before leaving the army, he occasionally sermonised in his uniform, and 35 years ago he preached in his red jacket, &amp;c., in the old Orchard Chapel. Mr. Abercrombie is a genial, smooth-natured, quiet man - talks easily yet carefully, preaches earnestly yet evenly; there is no froth in either his prayers or sermons; he never gets into fits of uncontrollable passion, never rides the high horse of personal ambition, nor the low ass of religious vulgarity - keeps cool, behaves himself, and looks after his work mildly and well. He has two or three sons in the United Methodist Free Church ministry, and one of them, called after the general who defeated the Napoleonic forces, is the only man belonging the body who has a university M.A. after his name." In the 1871 census at 8 Deepdale Terrace, Preston (Lancs): Richard Abercrombie, aged 74, United Methodist minister Free Chapel, Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital, born at Norwich, wife Esther, aged 68, born at Bury St Edmunds (Suffolk), Caroline Lunt, aged 34, widow, daughter, born at Salford (Lancs), and Richard E A Lunt, aged 10, grandson, born at Thomset (Derbys). The death of Esther Abercrombie, aged 72, was registered 1874/Q2 Bath. The death of Richard Abercrombie, aged 84, was registered 1881/Q3 W Ham.
