MEMORIAL INSCRIPTIONS

2016

Author: P J Bendall

Date: 7-Jul-2016

Status: Issue 2

These transcriptions come from a survey carried out in 2014 supplemented by a checking of some inscriptions and photographing of internal memorials in 2016. The names from the memorials have been reconciled with entries in the burial registers and other sources to give, as far as possible, the years of birth and death of the individuals mentioned on the memorials and an index to these.

Previous surveys have been carried out in 1998, 2002 and 2007. A CD with a document entitled Notes, On the Record of The Church and Churchyard Monumental Inscriptions -May 2007 has been lodged with Bath Record Office. This has photographs of surviving memorials and, separately, images of handwritten transcriptions of inscriptions. In order to avoid confusion, the numbering scheme for the graves, internal memorials and windows from those surveys have been used here.

ACWORTH The death occurred on Tuesday morning at his residence, The Hall, Southstoke, of the Rev. W. Acworth in his 96th year. The deceased gentleman, whose personality was a very familiar one on public platforms in Bath and the neighbourhood a few years ago, was a sturdy uncompromising Evangelical, as attested by speech, pen and action. He was a frequent contributor to the "Bath Chronicle," one of his latest letters to us a few months ago having been dictated from his bed to which he long been confined. . . . Mr. Acworth, who was a graduate of the University of Glasgow and Queen's College, Cambridge, took his degree of B.A. in 1832 proceeding to M.A. four years later. He was ordained by the Bishop of Lincoln,
